

Professional Healers- The range of new topical vibrational treatments presented in this course can be utilized by reiki, shiatsu, massage, esthetician and other bodywork/ alternative medicine practitioners to impart subtle feelings of well being to clients- without the need for extensive use of physical force & muscle exertion by the practitioner. A Flora Corona Flower Essence Certificate will be given upon completion of course material requirements.

Non-Professionals wanting to learn to use flower essences for self-education can also participate without course requirements or certification. This system provides vibrational home care treatments that can be used to renew and revitalize your body on a daily basis.

Presenting a New Way of Using Flower Essences Developed by Flora Corona

You will learn hands- on how flower essences re-vitalize the human energy system by taking them internally as well as applying them topically to your body each month. Sharing your impressions of the treatments with others via the Online Forum as well as studying the educational material each month will deepen your understanding of energy medicine. This training provides new and original topical techniques of using flower essences- a method that speaks to the mind of the cells and allows the body to simply do new things. Topical application is the leading edge of flower essence work and a technique that can be used at home and with clients to revitalize and permeate the human energy system to new octaves of well being:

According to Dr. Bruce Lipton, in his new book The Biology of Belief- the cell membrane is the actual brain of the cell that directs the cell's functioning, not the DNA in the cell nucleus. Counter to the idea that DNA determines how you function according to inherited DNA programming, Dr. Lipton says that your environment, belief system and perceptions are mediated by the cell membrane which informs and changes your DNA according to these signals. Environmental signals include your physical environment, energetic frequencies such as sound, light and vibrational medicine as well as your perceptions and thoughts about your environment. Lipton's quote from his website: 'The 'Heart of Energy Medicine' may truly be found in the magic of the membrane,' gives an indication of why the pure floral messages in flower essences are delivered to the body so effectively by their topical application.

Deborah Craydon Certified Flower Essence Practitioner:

“The information presented in this course is research distilled through twelve years of flower essence practice with clients in California, Colorado, and Hawaii as an FES certified flower essence practitioner. The new topical treatments in this course were developed through twelve years of research into colored light, flower essences, and the application of vibrational elixirs to the meridian system. The acupuncture application methods were developed in conjunction with Warren Bellows, Lic. Ac., co-author with Deborah Craydon of the book-

Floral Acupuncture- Applying the Flower Essences of Dr. Bach to Acupuncture Sites (Crossing Press 2005)”
